Loggers Always Provide Thrills in Their Annual Homecoming Game . . .

Today's game is the third Homecoming contest to be played on the CPS field.

Logger alumni will remember many thrilling Homecoming games played in the past. In 1932, Captain Burdette Sterling scored on a two-yard end sweep just four seconds ahead of the final gun to down Pacific University, 13 to 6. In 1941, Ralph Lundvall fell on a fumble in the College of Idaho end zone for the only score of the game. In 1932, 1937 and 1948 the Loggers also eked through with one touchdown margins.

The great Walter Camp, whose name is almost synonymous with football, once watched a CPS Homecoming game. And what he saw was enough to make sure that he never forgot the College of Puget Sound. For on that day in 1924, the Maroon and White lost to Washington by the unbelievable score of 96 to 0.

In 1929 a Logger Homecoming festival marked an important date in Northwest football history. Twelve thousand fans witnessed the first game ever played under lights in this sector of the country, as Washington again swamped CPS, 73-0, in Stadium bowl.

One of the most electrifying aerial exhibitions ever put on by the Loggers was turned in by Alex Schwetz and the 1936 Loggers who pasted Pacific, 27 to 6. CPS did little but toss the ball around in that victory, and on one play flipped five laterals, good for a total of 50 yards.

Jimmy Ennis, who now coaches at Everett high school, was the star of two separate Homecomings. In 1932 and again in 1934 he led CPS to victory. Ennis scored a touchdown in the Loggers' 13-6 win over Pacific and tallied twice as Whitman fell, 19-0.

Heinrick's CPS Record Outstanding . . .

JOHN HEINRICK

John Patrick Heinrick, a native Tacoman, is in his seventh year as head coach of the College of Puget Sound football team.

Heinrick has a record of 35 wins, 11 losses and five ties in six coaching years at CPS, and has earned a share of the Evergreen title four times.

The popular Logger mentor received his degree from the University of Washington in 1926, but played his college football at Central Washington where he captained the Wildcat grid squad in his last season.

He started coaching at Tacoma's Bellarmine High School and had amazing success in the city's smallest school. In 1934 he moved to Stadium.

Heinrick took over the head coaching job at Stadium in 1936 and in his second year led the Tigers to the Cross-State title. His teams repeated in 1938 and 1946.

In 1945, while still handling football at Stadium, Heinrick became the head basketball coach at CPS. He's been the Logger hoop boss ever since.

"Genial John" moved to the College full time in 1948, taking over as football coach and athletic director.

The years of 1948 and 1949 saw Heinrick's elevens grab a share in the Evergreen title. The Loggers won again in 1951 and tied with Whitworth last year for the crown. The Maroon and White has the best overall record in football in the conference.

The Logger eleven started a new winning streak over their arch rivals, Pacific Lutheran, last year by thumping the Lutes twice, 20-0 and 27-6. In 1952, the Gladiators beat a Heinrick-coached team for the first time, and Logger adherents hope that Heinrick can continue his newest streak over the Lutes this fall.

Loggers Hope to Bounce Back After Last Week's Defeat by Whitworth

After being beaten and humiliated in their show-down battle with the Whitworth Pirates last Saturday, the College of Puget Sound Loggers will be out this afternoon to get back on the winning trail.

Biggest obstacle in winning is the injuries that have riddled the Logger manpower situation full of holes after four rough and tumble football games. At least nine Loggers were suffering from injuries this week, which has caused Coach Heinrick to take a dim view over his team's chances until they have recovered.

With Captain Warren Logan out with a knee injury, Shelly Gerarden and Phil Yant will get the call at the end positions. Yant is an ex-service man who has been a starter in the Loggers' first four games. Gerarden, back after a shoulder separation, starred at the wing post in the Whitworth game. Junior Jack Daly and Tom Glump, senior letterman, will also be ready for action.

Transfer from Washington State, Bob Patterson will get a starting nod at one of the tackles, as will rugged Dick Hansen. Hansen is a two-year letterman. Big "Moose" Dick Graham is a question mark with injuries and may not see action. Freshman Eugene Sleeper, from Garfield in Seattle, will also see action.

Big Bob Mitchell and senior letterman Gerry Murdock are slated to open at the guards, although Murdock may be slowed with a foot injury. If Murdock isn't ready to go, Hansen will probably be switched from tackle. Reserve help is weak at this position, with Ray Boyle, regular performer, out for the season with a broken hand.

Center Bob Ehrenheim will probably have to play 60 minutes since second string hiker Bob Erickson, freshman from Everett, has turned up with a bad ankle. Don Scorallo may see action to spell off Ehrenheim.

Don Egge, who looked very good in the Whitworth tussle, will be at the starting quarterback position and three-year letterman Joe Stortini figures to be in there. Freshman Jim Fitzsimmons, promising freshman from Stadium, could see considerable action.

The halfback picture is grim with several injuries being suffered in the Whitworth game. Dale Meshke and Don Parsons will start if they are recovered, but Marv Manley and Wes Pruitt are the only experienced hands in good shape. Hard-running Dave Groche will see considerable action and could start.

Junior Rich Dodds, good linebacker and runner, will be at fullback. Like Ehrenheim, he may have to play 60 minutes.

Wildcats Seek Season's First Victory

The Central Washington Wildcats will be looking for their first win of the season when they collide with the Loggers this afternoon.

The Wildcats have dropped four closely contested ball games so far this year as Clipper Carmody has been trying to find a winning combination. The 'Cats were beaten by the Whitman Missionaries, 14-0, the Lewis and Clark Pioneers, 14-13, the Whitworth Pirates, 15-6, and the Pacific Lutheran Gladiators in their latest encounter, 20-7.

The Central eleven will be out to spoil the Loggers' Homecoming festivities since the Heinrickmen dumped the Wildcats at Ellensburg last year 20-19. The defeat put a damper on the Wildcats' Homecoming celebration. The game was a thriller, however, as the Loggers pulled the verdict out of the fire in the last 10 seconds.

The Wildcats are strong at end with three lettermen and several freshmen battling for starting positions. Freshman Wilber Lucas from Auburn has been a regular starter and has been teaming with two-year letterman Jerry Tilton. In back of Tilton and Lucas are two-year letter winning Dennis Anderson and one-striper Jack Dickinson.

The tackle positions are no problem for Coach Carmody with four veterans back to fill this position. Don Lyall, who has earned two letters at tackle, is back, as well as Bill Barber who lettered as a freshman, and senior John Startzel who came from the University of Wyoming last year. Sophomore Yarl Jensen is also in the picture.

Graduation hurt the Wildcats at the guard spot but the Ellensburg school has three experienced athletes back to carry the main load. Van Morgan, a two-year letterman, George Argelan, ex-Marine, and freshman Larry Downey, all-city tackle in Seattle last year. Bruce Zeller is also expected to see action against the Loggers this afternoon.

The Wildcats were hurt at center this fall because of the graduation of All-Conference and Little All-American Bob Hibbard. Alphonse Knutson, senior letterman, has edge for the starting call over freshman Dale Lanigan, star all-around athlete from Golden-dale.

All-Conference quarterback Bill Harriman, a fine passer and faker, is the big gun of the Central attack at the signal calling post. Harriman is backed up by Bill Bieloh, freshman ace from Ellensburg.

The halfback spots are well taken care of with the speedy Don Pierce, Dan Trombley, Bob Spearman, ex-Walla Walla great, and freshmen Jimmy Nelson and Lee Foster bolstering the attack. Spearman will divide his duties between halfback and fullback.

The Wildcats are hungry for victory and will be out to give the Loggers a rough afternoon.

CARMODY IS IN HIS FIFTH YEAR AS CENTRAL WASHINGTON'S COACH

L. G. "Clipper" Carmody, the ex-Central athlete, is serving his fifth year as head coach of the Wildcat grid forces. He has high hopes for this year's squad as it is expected to be the strongest to represent Central in several seasons.

Carmody is a graduate of Ellensburg High School and attended Central two years before entering the service during World War II. He served in the Air Force as a heavy bomber pilot and returned to Central after the war. He was a standout in both football and basketball for the Wildcats and won all-WINCO honors in both sports. He was given little All-American honorable mention and played in the East-West Shrine game in 1947.

After receiving his Master's degree from Columbia University in 1948, he was assistant professor of physical education at the University of Washington for a year before returning to Central in 1949.
